Birds of a feather DO flock together, almost every evening at Stewart Beach. This common sight of mustering seagulls intrigues photographers, and is almost as popular among the "shutter bugs" as the coast itself. An interesting note is that these birds can be seen on June Lake located 300 miles from the coast on the far side of the Sierra Nevada mountain range.

Lower Grade Counselor Approved By Board

"The number and kinds of discipline problems here appearing to be more severe than elsewhere I've been, I think we will have to do more with parents along preventive lines" said Supt. Dr. Harris A. Taylor, in underlining the need for a counselor to work with elementary school students to the Carmel Unified School Board at last night's meeting.

The State of California has approved a $6000 NDEA grant to this district for this purpose. In addition, the remainder of the salary for this position will be provided by Federal Title I funds and allotments from the State for the identification and programming of mentally gifted students.

The person would work with elementary students requiring long term guidance services, coordinate the District's gifted child program (along with the Lyceum), and identify students with specific learning problems.

Asked Dick Wilson, school board member, "Can one person do much? There are a lot of kids in the District. If there is a problem, we should attack it, not nibble at it."

"At least it's a start," answered Taylor. "We are making a survey to identify student problems from particular areas — Carmel village, Carmel Valley, mid-valley—in an effort to find patterns of truancy, drug use, etc. It should be ready before September. It is not wise to wait until children reach Middle School or the high school before they receive counseling."

Bus for Head Start

The use of a school bus and driver to pick up and deliver children for the Head Start program during the summer, entirely at government expense, was requested and discussed by the board. The board will draw up an agreement with a terminating clause, to be acted on at the next meeting, June 19.

Bay School

Several parents and friends of Bay School Nursery School, including Mrs. Sally Hudson, chairman of the committee to raise funds for the building restoration were on hand.

It was suggested that they get pledges of money, labor and materials. If enough community support were forthcoming, the board could then decide to what extent they might be able to meet a deficit.

1968-69 Budget

The tentative budget for 1968-69 was submitted for action at the next meeting on June 19. The request for cost-of-living salary raises for

CHS Names

Gym For Don Craig

Donald M. Craig, loved and respected master Spanish teacher at Carmel High School for 28 years, was honored at his retirement by the Carmel Unified School Board last night by having the high school gym named for him. A plaque will have his name on it and should the high school be moved to a new location, the name will go with it and be placed on a new gymnasium.

Craig coached football when he first came to CHS, along with Spanish, English, American history, economics and journalism.

To honor Donald Craig, the Jaycees of the Monterey Peninsula have founded a perpetual plaque and $1,000 scholarship. Each year it will be given to a male senior who has shown outstanding ability in athletics, school scholarship and activities inside and outside CHS, according to The Sandpiper, school paper.

Two Musical Hits To Open Soon At Studio Theatre-Restaurant

"The Boy Friend" and "Carnival" will offer playgoers a pleasing contrast in style and impact during the forthcoming 11th musical season at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel.

Opening June 21, "The Boy Friend" by Sandy Wilson is a brassy spoof of the Roaring 'Twenties. Its breakneck pace of action, song and dialogue culminates in the Charleston dance numbers when the "flappers" and "lounge lizards" do that "old vodeodo." The 2000 London performances of "The Boy Friend" launched Julie Andrews on her career and its off-Broadway run of '63 paved the way for wide-spread summer stock and community theatre production.

"Carnival" which opens June 28 is the tender and beguiling story of a runaway French girl adopted by a traveling circus. Starring Anna Maria Alberghetti as Lili, it captivated Broadway critics and audiences in the 1961-62 season with its fresh melodies by Bob Merrill combined with Gower Champion's deft touch as director-choreographer. Its theme song "Love Makes The World Go Round" has become a popular classic.

Children's Theatre A Must To See

The actors in Marcia Hovic's Children's Theatre Workshop entertained an adult audience at the Circle Theatre last week with the performances of Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid" and "The Doctor in Spite of Himself." The plays will continue on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings this week.

The youngsters, oldest being sophomores in High School, turned in performances which, in many cases, should make adult actors twist in their seats and blush bright red with envy. The lines, as you can imagine, were very difficult and many times quite lengthy. The language Moliere used must have seemed jumbled in our modern times, but these boys and girls spoke them with authority and meaning. Not a line was noticeably dropped.

These shows marked the first time the Children's Theatre has acted before an adult audience on an adult stage. In the past they performed only on school stages to school children.

The actors were: Cary Crockett, Tracy Eberly, Bob Faul, Joey Girotti, Rosemary Glynn, Katie Hovick, Claudia Landon, Mary Mabe, Greg Niebel, Jim O'Brien, Mike Roberts, Barbara Shuler, Mark Shuler, Mindy Stock, Gail Stutzman, Cathy Thaler, Julie Mead and Karen Shaef-fer. "The Boy Friend" is directed by Don Osborn and choreographed by James Sweeney, while "Carnival" is under the direction of Gary Eldridge with choreography by Jeanne Hughes. Roger Osgood is musical director for both. Costumes are by Judy Evans and settings and lighting by Bob Evans, Jr.

Theatre Review

THE PRIVATE NAVY OF SERGEANT O'FARRELL . . . Bob Hope and Phyllis Diller in a laugh riot about the army and the navy trying to get beer and girls during WWII.

FITZWILLIE . . . Our favorite Dick Van Dyke plays a servant who steals to provide money for his mistress.

CARPETBAGGERS . . . A great old-timer about the son of an industrialist who takes over the family business. A great movie.

NEVADA SMITH . . . A "shoot-em-up" with lots of killing.

SAND PEBBLES . . . Steve McQueen stars in this Academy Award winner. An American in China almost causes a world war.

BATTLE OF ALGIERS . . . Surrounds the political and military fighting in Algiers from 1954 to 1957.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling comedy.

GRAND PRIX . . . a beautiful film cinemographically speaking. Stars actually race at high speeds while filming this magnificent picture in 70 mm film. Full stereophonic sound adds to the impact.

THE PARTY . . . Peter Sellers teams with Claudine Longet to bring to the movie industry another Sellers great. He plays a bungling film star who "crashes" a posh party.

BEDAZZLED . . . A cook sells his soul to the devil so that he might woo the waitress of his dreams.

Stephen Welles, managing director of the Welles Humanist Educational Theatre has announced "FEIFFER AND FOLKS" will discontinue playing Sunday evenings. Henceforth the only two production nights will be Friday and Saturday, this continuing until July 18th.

Candidacy Announced For U.S. Senate

by Charles Strohner

At All Saints Episcopal Church in Carmel Sunday the Right Reverend C. Edward Crowther, in fierce determination to seek an end to the unmeasured violence and the political immorality that built into the crashing crescendo of the assassination of Senator Kennedy — his friend, declared his candidacy for the U. S. Senate. To those present and later, in an exclusive interview with the PINE CONE, he made the following statement:

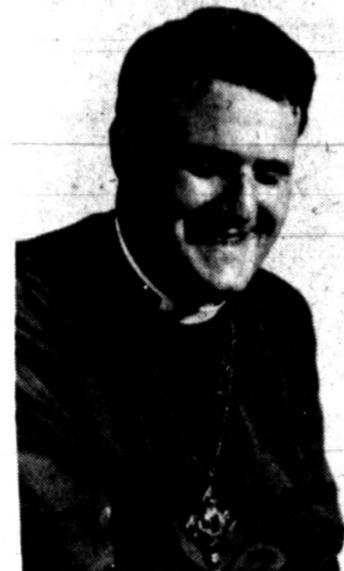

"I am prepared to run for the U. S. Senate if this seems to offer the people the entirely different choice of candidate to that which they have been getting — to offer that for which I feel they are asking."

"I would run as Edward Crowther — lawyer as well as Bishop. I would represent only my own conscience. This is the sort of platform which perhaps in California more than in any other State presents a viable possibility of success."

"It will offer the voters an alternative to the party professional. More important than that — it would present a positive opportunity to enlarge the dialogue for debate on the issues confronting our nation, which are essentially moral; e.g. poverty in the midst of wealth; violence as a way of life; peace at the individual and national level, reflecting who we really are."

"The right use of our massive power in international affairs is essentially a moral question. Racism and bigotry demand as their antidote a doctrine of man which acknowledges brotherhood and dignity as essential ingredients governing the way in which we treat ourselves and therefore others."

"This is the sort of political campaign I would like to offer the people. It would cross party lines and unite us in the aim the best of us wish to share — to express decency, integrity and truth in our national life. It would be very thrilling and an adventure of faith in our country."

Bishop Crowther continued, saying he detests political immorality and wants to enlarge the moral basis of political decision-making.

"The people want an opportunity to vote their best instincts, the most present example being the candidacy of Senator Eugene McCarthy. Integrity has become a political necessity and this is the way out of the jungle for our country."

Bishop Crowther enlarged his views, stating emphatically: "We are in danger of accepting the unacceptable — and this is frightening!"

"We are in danger of accepting poverty in the midst of wealth — this is no longer acceptable. We must not sweep the poor under the rug any more."

"We are in danger through the use of power greater than the world has ever known for the waging of war."

"We are in danger of the horrible syndrome of violence begetting more violence; seeing the answer to protest as being the creation of more police methods of oppression. This is unacceptable."

"We are in danger of accepting political immorality in high places. Government by lobby and Senator Doddisms are no longer acceptable to me."

"We are in danger of accepting as a practical impossibility the provision of a basic minimum wage for all our people, at the same time guaranteeing a basic minimum market for the manufacturers of armaments and napalm. This is unacceptable to me."

"The sort of world we are handing over to the youth of today with the available options offered by us for its change is not only unacceptable by me but is unacceptable by its recipients — our youth itself."

Bishop, lawyer and thinking man, vocal in his beliefs and forthright in his actions, the Rt. Rev. Crowther speaks before 2000 students a week and appears on national T.V. and radio to espouse his convictions.

For addressing a convention in Geneva and for his militant opposition to the apartheid policies of South Africa he was deported "in the public interest" in 1967. The late Senator Robert Kennedy, a friend and a guest in his home in South Africa prior to his expulsion, described him as "one of the foremost fighters for freedom and the dignity of man in South Africa."

He, his wife and three children are naturalized American citizens and California residents. Bishop Crowther is now a Visiting Fellow at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, Santa Barbara, where his major interest is the morality of international politics.

One phrase, among many, sticks in the mind from his sermon at All Saints Church: "Let us not assassinate our hopes — for a world without violence and bigotry, based on a foundation of new political morality."

Community Church Hosts Theologians

During the absence of the regular minister the Reverend Burkert Cree, presently vacationing in Europe, the members of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula will have the privilege of hearing two distinguished theologians as guest ministers.

On Sunday, June 16, Dr. Howard Thurman, who in 1966 delivered the address at the ground-breaking services, will be the speaker. Dr. Thurman had a distinguished career as professor of Theology and Dean of the Chapel of Boston University, and is the author of several theological texts. He is minister-emeritus of the Church for the Fellowship of All Peoples in San Francisco.

The following Sunday, June 23, the pulpit will be occupied by the world renowned philosopher, educator and clergyman, Dr. Robert E. Fitch, who retired in 1967 as Dean of the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley where he continues to teach a class in Christian ethics.

Beachcomber Reading Club

Mrs. Elizabeth Clemons, author of SHELLS ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM, TIDE POOLS AND BEACHES, and other books, will be at the Harrison Memorial Library on Saturday, June 15 at 10 a.m. to speak to the future Beachcombers.

She will show the children how to care for their shells, and share some interesting information about shells which she has learned. This will be the kick-off for the summer reading program. Children who have completed the first grade are eligible to join, earning shells for books read.

A Bit Of Old New England Come To Carmel Valley Village

The Smith family from Boston has moved into Carmel Valley Village and opened THE CARRIAGE HOUSE in the Carmel Valley Center shopping area behind Will's Fargo and the Texaco station.

The Carriage House is a unique combination of dining room, tea room, and reading room with the flavor and restful charm of the New England countryside. Open daily (including Sundays) from "noon 'til nine," the Smiths feature authentic Boston Clam Chowder made with tender Ipswich clams, cream and butter; and a rare, 150-year-old New England dish called "Baked Lobster Pie."

This is actually a meal-sized mound of lobster meat, soaked in melted butter, between crusts of specially seasoned bread crumbs — all baked to order in a Fort Pitt baker and served sizzling hot right out of the oven. Other entrees include: real Russian beef a la Stroganoff, spaghetti marinara dicarne, hearty knockwurst and hot German potato salad, and chicken Tetrazzini.

Afternoon hours feature desserts and beverages with a favorite being an unusual, pie-crust tart listed on the menu as "petite pie" (pronounced 'petty pie'). These tarts are freshly filled to order from an assortment of delicious fruit and cheese fillings. Another Carriage House specialty reminiscent of old New England is hot cider mulled with stick cinnamon and spices — guaranteed to take the bite out of chilly days.

The Carriage House is decorated very informally with old prints, magazine covers and ads, and various miscellanea which complement the additional business of buying and selling used books of all kinds. Folks are invited to browse and read and chat — it's that kind of place. Books are purchased, or traded, or taken on consignment; and paper backs are equally welcome (sometimes they're more saleable than hard-bound books).

More Helpful Tips from PG&E:

"Clip and Save."

HOW TO WARM UP A cold pilot.

Even the most faithful pilot light can go out. So check your pilot first if one of your gas appliances or furnace isn't operating.

Most gas ranges have more than one pilot. If you're not sure where they're located, consult your owner's manual. (If you need help, call us.) Before relighting a pilot, be sure all burners are turned off. Allow a few minutes for the air to clear, then touch a lighted match to the pilot opening. The pilot should light with a small, blue flame, and the burner should light when you turn it on. If the burner fails to light, call us. We'll send a man out to check it.

Modern gas water heaters and dryers shut off completely if the pilot goes out. And most models bear manufacturer instructions for relighting. If you can't get the appliance operating, call us or the installer.

If the pilot of any gas heater or furnace goes out, TURN OFF THE MAIN BURNER VALVE FIRST. Allow ten or fifteen minutes for any accumulation of gas to clear before relighting pilot (following the instructions on the equipment). With the pilot relighted, the furnace or heater should operate. If it won't, call us.

PILOTS NEEDN'T GO ON VACATION. Some folks prefer to shut off furnaces and water heaters during the summer or vacations. However, it's more convenient to turn off the main burner, but not the pilot. When the pilot is lighted, your furnace is ready to work on a cold day. Most hot water heaters can be turned to "PILOT" when not in use. This keeps the pilot lighted and prevents the main burner from heating water.

WARNING: Never look for a gas leak with a lighted match or candle. If you suspect a gas leak, call PG&E right away and we'll check it.

If you call for a PG&E service man to check out a gas leak or an appliance, have him show you where your pilots are, and how to relight them. If an appliance needs repairs or parts, an appliance man, plumber, or furnace man should be called.

P.S. Since there have been six rate reductions in your gas and electric rates in the past five years, it's easy to see this makes PG&E service a bigger family bargain than ever.

Johnson Wedding at All Saints'

The wedding of Susan Jane Morgan and Dexter Cragg Johnson took place recently at All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Reverend Peter Farmer officiating.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Morgan, recently of Palo Alto, now of Menlo Park. Her sister, Carol, also a Palo Alto graduate, flew in from Western Washington State College in Bellingham, to be her sister's maid of honor.

Dexter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian S. (Dorothy Johnson, the writer) Johnson, of Palo Alto and Carmel. He is the grandson of Mrs. James Edward Cragg of Henderson, Texas. His sister, Vicki, of Westridge, Portola Valley, was present for the wedding.

Dexter attended the University of California at Berkeley.

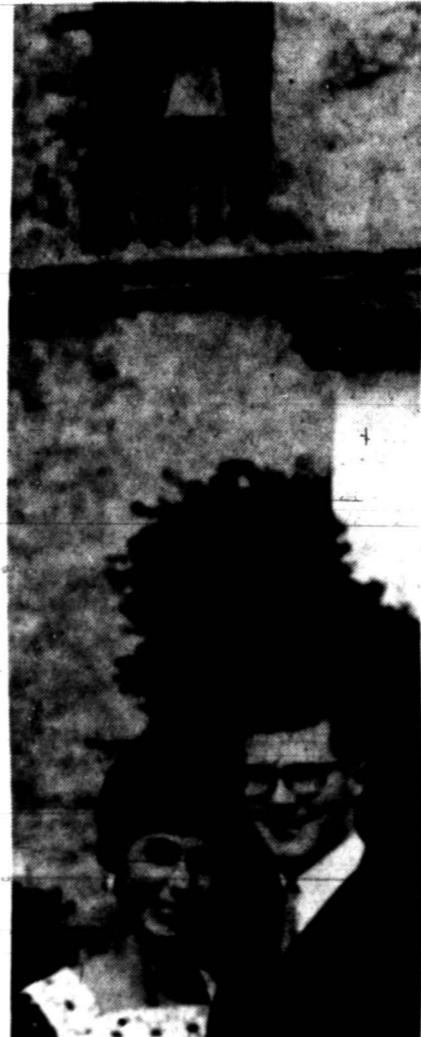

Sue and Dexter met when they were students at Palo Alto High School. After graduation both travelled extensively — Dexter to Europe twice, Sue to Mexico and around the world on a political affairs tours conducted by Ed Radunzel of KQED. The world trip, a graduation present from her grandmother, Mrs. Arthur C. Mauerhan of Nicasio, who also went on the trip was of particular interest to Sue as they met many of the people of Russia and India.

After the wedding, the young couple was congratulated at a reception in Carmel attended by friends and relatives from San Francisco, Castro Valley and the Peninsula.

Dancer in Accident

Nancy Lang, the dancer, is recovering from a broken collarbone suffered in a hit-and-run auto accident recently.

Denis, now an art teacher, was a graduate of Marymount High School, attended the Institute of European Studies in Vienna for one year, and was graduated from the University of Southern California.

She was a member of Chi Omega social sorority and Kappa Pi, honorary art sorority. She was a former member of Ticktockers of National Charity League.

A June 22 wedding in Newport where they will live, is planned.

For Those Who Mourn

When by some swift and unforeseen blow
The pillars of the soul are struck away—
And only broken fragments stand to show
Their tragic outlines dark against the day—

When all that gave life meaning seems destroyed
And every promise for tomorrow brought
To nothingness; when time is but a void—
Across a gulf in which the will is caught—
Know that destruction serves a sacred end;
That even now new lines of vision rise
Above the ruins... arches that ascend

In curve and column reaching to the skies.
There will be strength to raise the fallen stone,
And high assistance though you build alone.

Ens. and Mrs. Page van Loben Sels, whose marriage took place recently at the Carmel Mission Basilica, will make their home in Arlington, Virginia. After a brief stay in Pebble Beach following the wedding, the young couple drove across the country to Washington, D.C. where Page reported for duty Saturday.

A garden reception at John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch in Carmel Valley followed the three-o'clock ceremony uniting Wilfred Page van Loben Sels and Diane Margaret Dwyer of Stockton at Carmel Mission Basilica recently. The ceremony, performed by Father Felix, was attended only by immediate family members.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Dwyer of Stockton, Diane was given in marriage by her father.

It was something of a family reunion for Page's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Ernest (Jean and Bud) van Loben Sels, since his two sisters, Judy and Elizabeth (Liz), had come a long distance for the wedding.

"DD," as she is called, wore a long gown of white silk linen with a bateau neckline edged with a daisy patterned Venice lace which also formed the cap sleeves. A similar lace border accented the hemline of the skirt which extended into a full chapel train. A band of lace daisy clusters secured her bubble veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and baby's breath.

Her cousin, Miss Christine Pierce of Stockton, served as her maid of honor. She wore a long white linen sheath with a jewel neckline and a leather belt accenting the Empire waistline. She wore a Dior bow headpiece and carried a French bouquet of mixed flowers.

Page chose as his best man, Ensign Martin Denieke of Marin County.

Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ortman of Stockton were present, as was her brother, John Patrick Dwyer.

Page's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Kleeberger, and his aunt, Mrs. Edward Shuey, both of Orland, were present, as was his uncle, James P. van Loben Sels (well known here as "Jim"), of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. James Florrent van Loben Sels of Scenic Drive in Carmel were present at his grandson's wedding, as were his great-uncles and great-aunts, Mr. and Mrs. George Page and Mrs. Roy Page of Carmel and F. R. Schumaker of Pacific Grove.

The reception was given by the California Arts Commission, to which Mrs. Stanton was recently appointed.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Premier

While looking through our new books, I noticed how many biographies we have been getting. So let me tell you about some of them. Journey Toward Freedom is the story of Sojourner Truth, written by Jacqueline Bernard. Sojourner was born about 1797 in New York and was named Isabelle. A slave took the name of his master, so for the time her name was Hardenbergh. She was eventually freed when New York State freed all its slaves and in 1843 she left her domestic job, took the name of Sojourner ("because I was to travel up and down the land," Truth ("because I was to declare truth unto the people"). She preached at religious and anti-slavery meetings and became well known for her wit and her good sense. She spoke out in favor of women's rights, prison reform and better conditions for working people. It's an exciting book about an important era. On her tombstone was the following: "Born a slave in Ulster County, State of New York, in 18th Century. Died in Battle Creek, Michigan, November 26, 1883. Aged about 105 years. Is God Dead?"

TOWARD ONE WORLD: THE LIFE OF WENDELL WILLKIE is by Bill Severn, who has written biographies

Psychological Association

Jane Sivertsen of Carmel, clinical psychologist on the staff of the Monterey County Psychiatric Clinic, is the new president of the Monterey Bay Psychological Association. Other officers for 1968-69 are: Honorary Past President, Dr. Bruno Klopfer of Carmel; Past President, Jack Wendt of Corralitos; Vice President, Ron Blanchette of Santa Cruz; Secretary, Fred Green of Salinas; Treasurer, Dale Michael of Pebble Beach; Representatives-at-large, Ed Benton of Monterey and Dr. John Holmes of Carmel Valley.

The organization, which is the local professional association for psychologists in Santa Cruz, San Benito, and Monterey Counties, culminated its second year's activities with a general membership meeting at the California Test Bureau in Monterey, April 17. Dr. Douglas Ayers spoke on "New Developments at California Test Bureau."

Bay School Raised $1400

Net proceeds of the recent fund raising May Day at Bay School were about $1400, it was reported by Mrs. Catherine Nolan, president of the Parents' Nursery School which is using the building. Together with funds in the bank, the little school now has $3000 and promises of labor and materials with which to start reconstruction of the historical school building which has been threatened with being torn down or sold. The entire cost is estimated to be $12,500.

In order to assure Mrs. L. J. Hudson, chairman of the citizen's committee to try to raise money for this project, that the property would remain in its present use, Dr. Robert Newton introduced a statement that the school board intends that the property be used that way; however, they cannot guarantee the behaviour of future boards.

Y-DAY CAMP EXPANDS

The Monterey Peninsula YMCA's Day Camp program, entering its third summer, will have a capacity twice last summer's limit. In 1966, 48 boys were enrolled in Y-Day Camp. Last year, 160 boys enjoyed the program. This summer, between 270 and 300 Y-Day Campers are expected to sign up.

There will be three 2-week sessions of Y-Day Camp this summer beginning, June 24, July 8 and August 5, respectively.

Y-Day Campers will be picked up at locations all over the Peninsula in chartered school buses, and will be taken to Deer Flat Park for a program including daily inter-denominational Chapel service, songs, stories, swimming, games, crafts, hikes, a parents campfire, special trip and an overnight campout. Swim instruction will be given at the NPGS pool. Larry Burghardt, the YMCA's newly-arrived Program Secretary, will direct the program, assisted by a Y-Day Camp staff of 12 trained camp counselors.

Space is still available in all three periods. Interested parents wishing further information may call 373-4166.

Big Sur Children Go On Tour

On Sunday afternoon during A Children's Festival at the Cabrillo Theatre in Aptos, the Little Lyric Theater of Big Sur presented Act I of The Magic Flute by Mozart (adapted for children) and A Chinese Opera.

Gene Perrine organized the company of 36 young people from the Monterey Peninsula and Big Sur in 1964. Since then, the group has received marvelous critical reviews, and this was its first "on tour" performance.

On display in the Lobby of the Theater were four large mosaic panels showing sequences in Big Sur history. They were executed by children in the 1967 Summer Art Workshop in Big Sur under the direction of Robert Skiles.

board last week.

Mrs. Phyllis Davies, taking the place of Donald Craig as chairman of the district Foreign Language committee which has been working on improvements in instruction, submitted a list of recommendations which will be studied by the board.

New Teacher

Richard A. Zury who has been teaching Social Science Physical Education and coaching at Robert Louis Stevenson School for the past ten years, will replace Dick Lawitzke, Driver Education teacher at Carmel High School, for one year while he is on sabbatical leave doing graduate work at Michigan State University.

Resignations

The resignations of Harold J. Lippstreu, Applied Arts instructor at the high school, and Rudy Herr, Physical Education teacher there, were accepted with regret recently. Mr. Lippstreu will take a position as vice principal at Lakeport High School in Clear Lake, California.

That of Barbara Hartloff, Social Science teacher at Middle School, whose husband's military duty terminated, was also accepted.

A request for classified salary increase of 7.5 per cent, to reflect cost of living rise, is being considered by the board. This will amount to $29,000, but 46% of these employees will receive no increase since they are at the top of the schedule, explained Walter E. Hinton, Business Manager.

The Dahls Attend Baha'i Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl of Pebble Beach returned recently from Wilmette, Ill., where they attended the three day Baha'i Convention at the world-famous Baha'i House of Worship. The Baha'i Faith upholds the principle that Society in general and the wealthy in particular have responsibility for removing the conditions of poverty and relieving the poor from its debilitating effects.

Mr. Dahl was elected treasurer of the National Assembly.

The Bannisters Continue Their Travels In Rome and the Riviera

Our tours in Rome have been fascinating and breath-taking, starting with the Vatican Museum, Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's, the Colosseum, the Forum, etc., etc. One could spend days in Rome and never look at the same thing twice! We saw the burial place of the Popes, including that of Pope John XXIII which was most impressive. Outside of St. Peter's we saw a girl letting the hem out of her miniskirt before she was allowed to enter the church — hurrah for the Italian gendarmes! At the Catacombs, Luke was seized with one of his sneezing fits during a solemn recitation about the burial of the early Christians. In a stage whisper he said, "These ancient Christian 'pole-ees' are more deadly than any so far." This, of course, sent Anne and Sue into gales of laughter, and we all were frowned at by the large tour group of Germans who were listening intently to the German version of the recitation. Thought for a minute we were going to be thrown out of the Catacombs, which would have been a new experience, even for Jack & Bill!

These "Continental Breakfasts" are beginning to catch up with us; too many calories! All these rolls and jam in the morning, followed by pasta, in various forms, with a full course meal on top of that for both lunch and dinner, and naturally, wine with everything, except breakfast — you can imagine what we are beginning to look like. Anne and Sue do exercises every night, but the rest of us are too tired by bedtime! We're really taking our sightseeing seriously — we haven't missed a tour yet! Anne eats GELATI (ice cream) everywhere we go, and at any time of the day — even for breakfast! Part of Luke's job is to line up the next Gelati stand for her. Jack and Bill replenish our "spirits" stock for the cocktail hour every other day or so — this constitutes their shopping sorties, they have succeeded in getting lost in almost every city we've visited, but they agree they are seeing the world this way! They have been quite good about taking the tours — (we usually have our own local guide, who accompanies us in our mini-bus, with Luke, at the wheel). As soon as the tour is over, the fellows head for the nearest pub, while we gals run for the shops! We usually have to hustle because most of the shops throughout Europe close between 1:00 and 4:00 and then are open until 7:00 or 8:00 P.M. This schedule is rather frustrating for us ladies, but the men think it's great!

"EVACUEES" right now pouring out of the Middle East. Last night we talked with some Americans who had just been evacuated from Tripoli. They said they were most grateful to be in Rome in spite of the fact they only had 15 minutes notice to leave. They said the American Embassy was doing a great job getting them out, but they hoped they would be able to go back because they had to leave all their belongings behind. Many were having to shop for clothes as they came with only what they were wearing. Rome is flooded with these people — the hotels are full, and many are being housed in private homes.

Just one digression — the Italian bath towel — this has to be the largest in captivity — in fact, I'm sure it must have been the inspiration for the Roman TOGA!

We threw our coins over our shoulders into the Trevi Fountain, so we know we will return to La Bella Roma!

Flying into Nice (on Sunday, June 11th from Rome) was beautiful, however, it clouded up, and by the time we reached the hotel, it was raining. This was a great disappointment to the girls as they had planned to go swimming; Nice looks something like Florida — in fact, sections are named "Miami", "Palm Beach", etc. Our Hotel, "SPLENDID", was very nice with a roof-top swimming pool — about four blocks from the beach. The pool turned out to be useless, however, because of the weather!) We had an interesting trip to Menton (the closest French city to the Italian border), and Monte Carlo and Monaco the next day.

Since our flight to Paris was not until afternoon (and the rest of the group had left early in the morning), Jack and I took a bus ride to Cannes. We had lunch there and viewed the many Chris-Crafts riding at anchor, returned by bus, and then took off for Paris. Arivederci for now, The Bannisters.

YOU and the STARS --- Jewel WhiteAquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Month of better understanding with family. Long-term interests favored. Start new projects confidently. You may be attracted romantically to one of large age difference. Do not argue with a relative over this. Do as your heart says. Latter part of the year fine for law questions.

Pisces (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Genuine companionship favored pleasure and inner happiness thru meeting important people. Travel and distant contacts bring most rewarding results. You will not feel lonely this month. Quarrels will be conciled and loved ones try harder to please you. Be co-operative with younger people.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19)

Big romantic month. Your secret crush may show itself to others. Cures for hidden ailments may give some a new lease on life. Try to mingle and mix more than usual. Be an inspiration to others. Good time to plan or start a long trip, especially over oceans. Good for sale of art objects.

Taurus (Apr. 21-May 21)

Surprise others with your abilities. Shine in any crowd. Try new approach to all emotional matters and the planet Jupiter gives you special powers. Those in entertainment... artists, writers, etc. will glow with awards. Suddenly new acquaintance brings fun into your life. Stay calm and enjoy them.

Gemini (May 22-June 21)

Big property gains but beware of friends who want to distract to their enterprises. Mercurial pens can bring you fame, so write, write all month. You could even invest in your own talent. All emotional relationships favored, tho an interest of yours can affect your children. Cause quarrels and expenditures.

Cancer (June 22-July 22)

You may show a sudden change-of-heart and turn an old failure into a success story, much to your own amazement. You will even change your place of residence, tho you usually dread changes. Old fears vanish. Children and other relatives accept your views and get along on their own. Be happy.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 23)

Saturn brings you caution in daring ventures. Be careful not to be distracted by friends who want to bend you their way. Especially going into business with friends. Love life and social life both favored and both seek your attention. You may impress an older person who offers you money.

Virgo (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)

The Jupiter offers luck and abundance, Saturn holds you down and keeps you from the "shady" side of dealings. Best not to marry at this time. Take caution in handling wills, or contracts of any sort. Try to keep clear of debt, tho the one of the opposite sex will demand gifts and expenditures.

Libra (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Secret force and power are yours all month. Someone higher up may note this and seek you out to perform his/her projects. Friendly vibrations for old career enemies and only caution needed is in the romantic realm. Do your picking now, but marry later. You can shine in any situation.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Don't try to mix occupational areas and romance. Try to get extra sleep. Guard against being swayed by others into their methods or schemes. Forget about protecting others this month. Love seems farther away, but returns in July. People in authority may prove aggravating.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Jupiter moving to midheaven gives you power as never before. Be careful not to become arrogant to co-workers. Accept being the head of an enterprise but do not take more responsibility than you want to handle. A remarkable opportunity to form an unconventional life-long friendship.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 20)

Manipulate with great charm. All turns out as YOU want it. Very fatalistic month (and all year) due to your own Saturn ruling. Help dear ones to attain creative goals. Brotherly love favored above romantic attractions, but personally gratifying. Learn to forgive yourself for weaknesses.

With all the automatic equipment in homes today, about the only thing that is washed-by-hand is people.

"A TERRIBLY SEDUCTIVE LITTLE HOUSE"

"—And I hate to give it up!"—that's what the owner said about this delightful little post adobe on a knoll overlooking all the beautiful things of Carmel Valley. This is a SMALL-SCALE adobe, and we are looking for a couple or a single person who may have almost given up finding a true ranch house in a petite size. Fabulous master bedroom (because of the views) and luxurious bath, den or guest bedroom and bath, living-dining combination, top-knotch kitchen, service room, AND a huge studio. Present owner is a painter, and it was planned for ideal working conditions for an artist. Hot and cold water, skylights, and sliding doors open to the sweeping views. On a full acre knoll just above the valley floor, and priced at $55,000. Assume a loan of just under $33,000. (First time ever on the market.)

WHY PICTURE WINDOWS ARE MADE

Look at the view from this Carmel home and you'll know! Also, look at the amazing amount of parking (in CARMEL?) Also look at the lanai, the minimum yard maintenance, the three bedrooms and den, the 3 fireplaces (all with kindlers). Notice the dead-end street, the privacy and convenience of the location. This is a gregarious house; you'll want to invite a lot of people to come and look at your very special view of Carmel Bay, Point Lobos and the mountains. Best of all, the price is a most realistic $49,500.

A FAIRWAY HOME

The predominant feeling in this lovely home is one of order. The serene view of the beautiful, manicured fairway, golfers obviously enjoying the setting, the game, and their companions, viewed from a beautiful organized home which is in white-glove condition, all somehow restore one's perspective, and the pleasures of life once more seem important. A plan to see this easy-to-live-with home on the 5th fairway of the Dunes Course, and look forward to a few holes before dinner! 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, and the price is just $54,000.

High 12 Moves

The High 12 Luncheon Meetings will be held at the Elks Club beginning June 17.

Meetings have proven to be the most active and enthusiastic since the Club's inception November 24, 1956. The fellowship and programs have been so successful that average attendance has been in excess of 86 members.

Now, Cypress Club facilities in Carmel have been outgrown by High 12 and the Elks Club in Monterey's Monte Vista Section, near the Hill Theatre has been selected as a most desirable meeting place. No more risking parking tickets, table setting, kitchen duty or self service. Parking will be in a large, free lot. Service will be at tables, with tablecloths. Salad, plate lunch, dessert and drink will be served in the main dining room, separated from the public.

Now, you need not hesitate in bringing your friends, too.

The first program speaker will be General "Hap" Lyon, Marine Corps, ret. His subject will be "Monterey's Birthday." This will be a very interesting talk and will cover how Commodore Sloat rescued California for the United States. James Phillips will be chairman.

Recent new members to the Club are: W. F. (Bill) Sergent who lives at 98 Pradera Rd. on Rt. 1, Carmel. He is transferring from Berkeley Hi-12, where he owns an insurance brokerage business in the American Trust Bldg; Harold Jacoby, a retired Superior Court judge who lives in the Highlands Area; Irving E. Ollason, formerly of Salinas and now living in Pacific Grove and Paul F. Olson, formerly of Superior, Wisconsin and now living at Del Mesa Carmel.

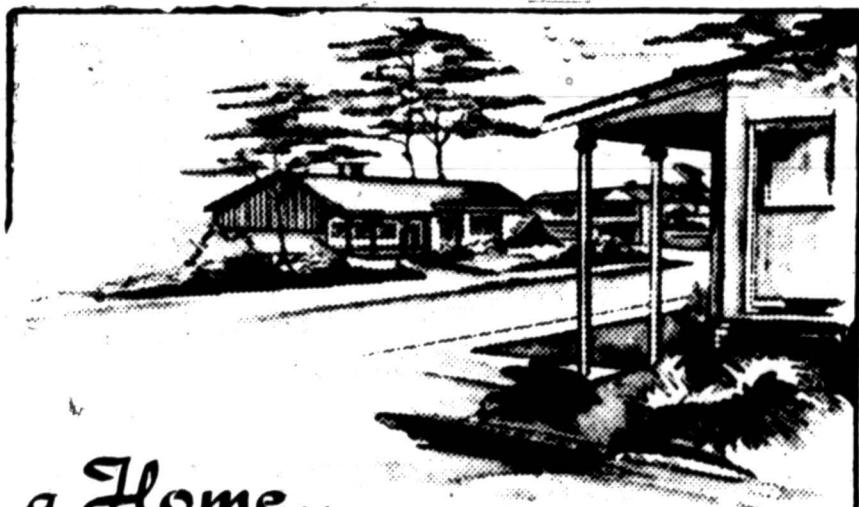

Councilman Frank Falge entertains a group of Iranian mayors who visited Carmel this week. The mayors, all very young men and women, toured the City Hall, Sunset Center and the Corporation Yard. They seemed to be quite interested in our heavy equipment and during the course of conversation, Falge explained how many fluorescent lights were in the Corporation Yard and asked if they had such lights in their country. The answer was no. Questions were asked "Do you number your trees," and "How often does your Council meet." All questions went through State Department interpreter Fereidon Sanjabi (back to the camera). Left to right, the mayors are: Mrs. Behdijat Saidi-Zand, Ali Sharati-Moghadam, Ebrahim Talaei, Abdolali Mirza and Said Jaffari-Sar Mdi. Howard Onstott joined the tour.

As Builders We Extend Our Compliments
To The Owners Of Quail Lodge

Guests staying at Quail Lodge are privileged to use the facilities at this magnificent clubhouse which in- clude luncheon and entertainment facilities, cocktail lounge, small convention rooms, a resort golf shop, swimming pool, tennis courts & the golf course itself.

Congratulations to QUAIL LODGE for the magnificent new 2 story — 12 unit addition, located at the entrance to the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Quail Lodge is a perfect California Retreat and Golfers Paradise.

The 24 existing lakeside cottage units are already well known for their "personalized accommodations." Again great care has been taken to furnish these new units to surpass the standards of the most discriminating guest. The balcony units overlook the lush green fairways of the golf course, and the lower accommodations have a vista across the swimming pool.

With the completion of the new units, Lodge guests now have the opportunity to select the facilities that best suit their needs: cottage units, cozy fireside suites, or a combination of several rooms for family or friends.

Would you rather have your own private park? Or your own private golf course? QUAIL LODGE offers both. With one of California's finest private courses for your own back yard, golfing pleasure is right outside the door. Drive to the clubhouse along the tree-lined road . . . cross the sparkling Carmel River . . . or use an electric golf cart; it will carry you past some of the reflecting lakes. You will find the course is not only a paradise for ardent golfers, but also a refuge for rare wild water birds, raccoons, opossum and deer, who just like you, come here "to get away from it all."

HOMESITES

The magnificent clubhouse, center of warmth and elegance, provides guests with a cocktail lounge, luncheon and entertainment facilities, small convention rooms, and a resort golf shop; while the swimming pool, tennis courts and the golf course itself make an ideal combination of challenge and beauty. By reservation, the management will furnish lodge guests with a courtesy card, granting them the privileges of this new luxury club.

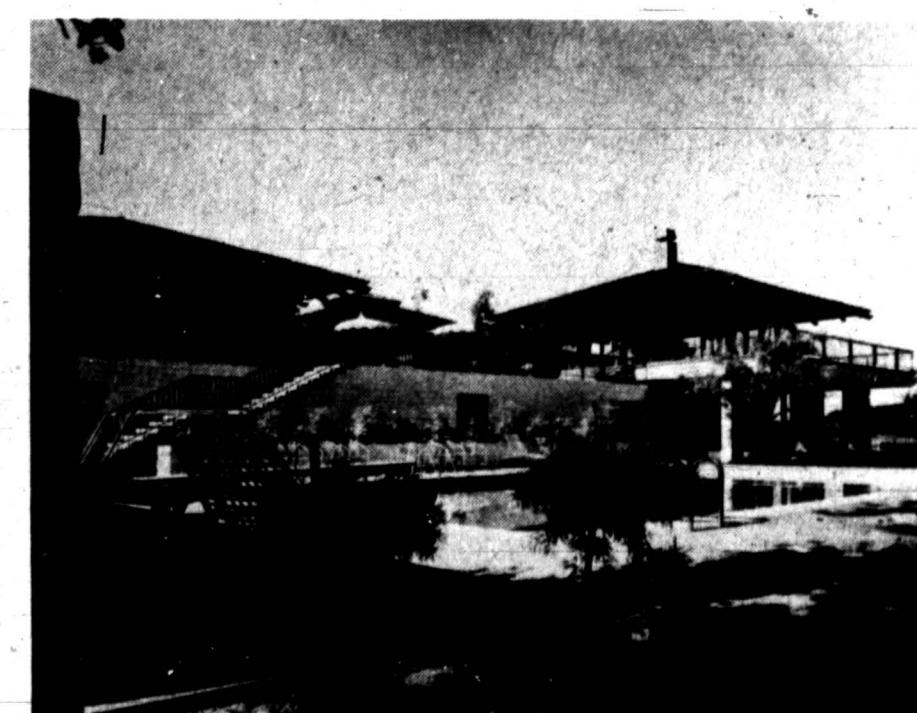

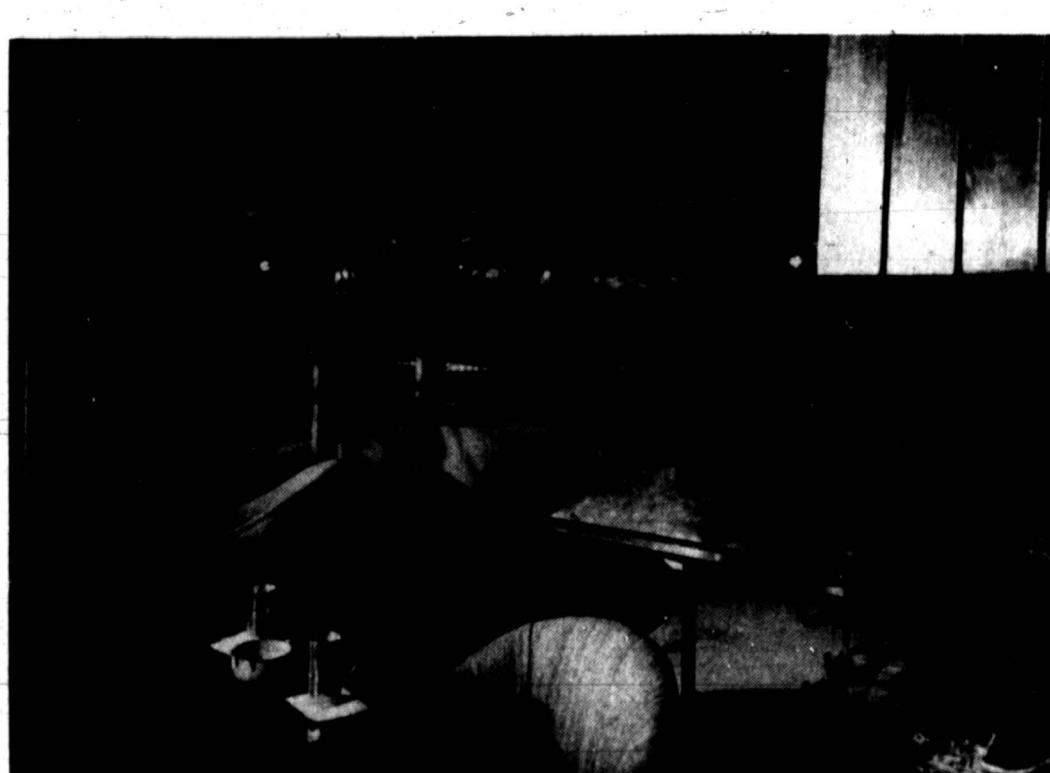

For those who would like to live in this delightful atmosphere, there are beautiful home sites and condominiums available bordering the spacious greens.

The President of the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, Mr. Edgar H. Haber, is an innovator of this outstanding retreat. Raised and educated in the San Francisco business world, Ed moved to Carmel Valley in 1947 where he quickly demonstrated his creative and business talents by starting the first newspaper (Carmel Valley News), the first theater (Carmel Valley Barn Theater), and by becoming the first representative in Carmel Valley for Equitable Life in mortgages and insurance. He was Vice President of the Valley Business and Professional Association, a forerunner of the Chamber of Commerce. His leadership in the community quickly grew as he led the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association in 1955 and 1956 through the establishment of the Carmel Valley Master Plan. He developed several important business centers and still found time to assist the community as Fire Commissioner for 8 years and as a member of the Board of Directors of the Monterey Jazz Festival. Ed's genius for development finally combined with his love for golf (he won the 1933 San Francisco City Amateurs Championship) to create the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Ed toured the U. S. and Europe and consulted with leading golf experts to arrive at the most challenging and beautiful course possible. The Town Houses, the split level Clubhouse, the unique grouping of homesites, and the elegant facilities at Quail Lodge — have all been designed with the golfer in mind. The Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club is a fulfillment of Ed's dream and again he has made a distinctive contribution to the community.

The golf course, at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, is outstanding in both design and maintenance. Careful planning and imagination has resulted in beauty and challenge — the essence of every hole. A great deal of research is behind the creation of the golf course as leading golf experts in the U. S. and Europe were consulted to arrive at the most challenging and beautiful course possible.

Most talked-about feature of Carmel Valley's fabulous golf links is the sporting challenge presented by its water hazards, for the course is studded by 10 fresh water lakes and crossed by Carmel River. Yet, to many the most important feature may well be that they can enjoy the golf course 12 months out of the year. It is situated just far enough into the valley to escape coastal fogs.

"We believe golf should be played more like they do in England where it's not uncommon to play 18 holes in 2½ hours" says Mr. Edgar H. Haber, President of the club. "We think 3½ hours is plenty and we plan to see that our members and guests always have the opportunity to get around the course promptly when they want to."

Quail Lodge, which is located at the entrance to the golf course, offers luxurious overnight accommodations. The guests who are staying at Quail Lodge are privileged to use the facilities of the Country Club, which in addition to the golf course, include the cocktail lounge, dining room, small convention rooms, a resort golf shop, swimming pool and tennis courts.

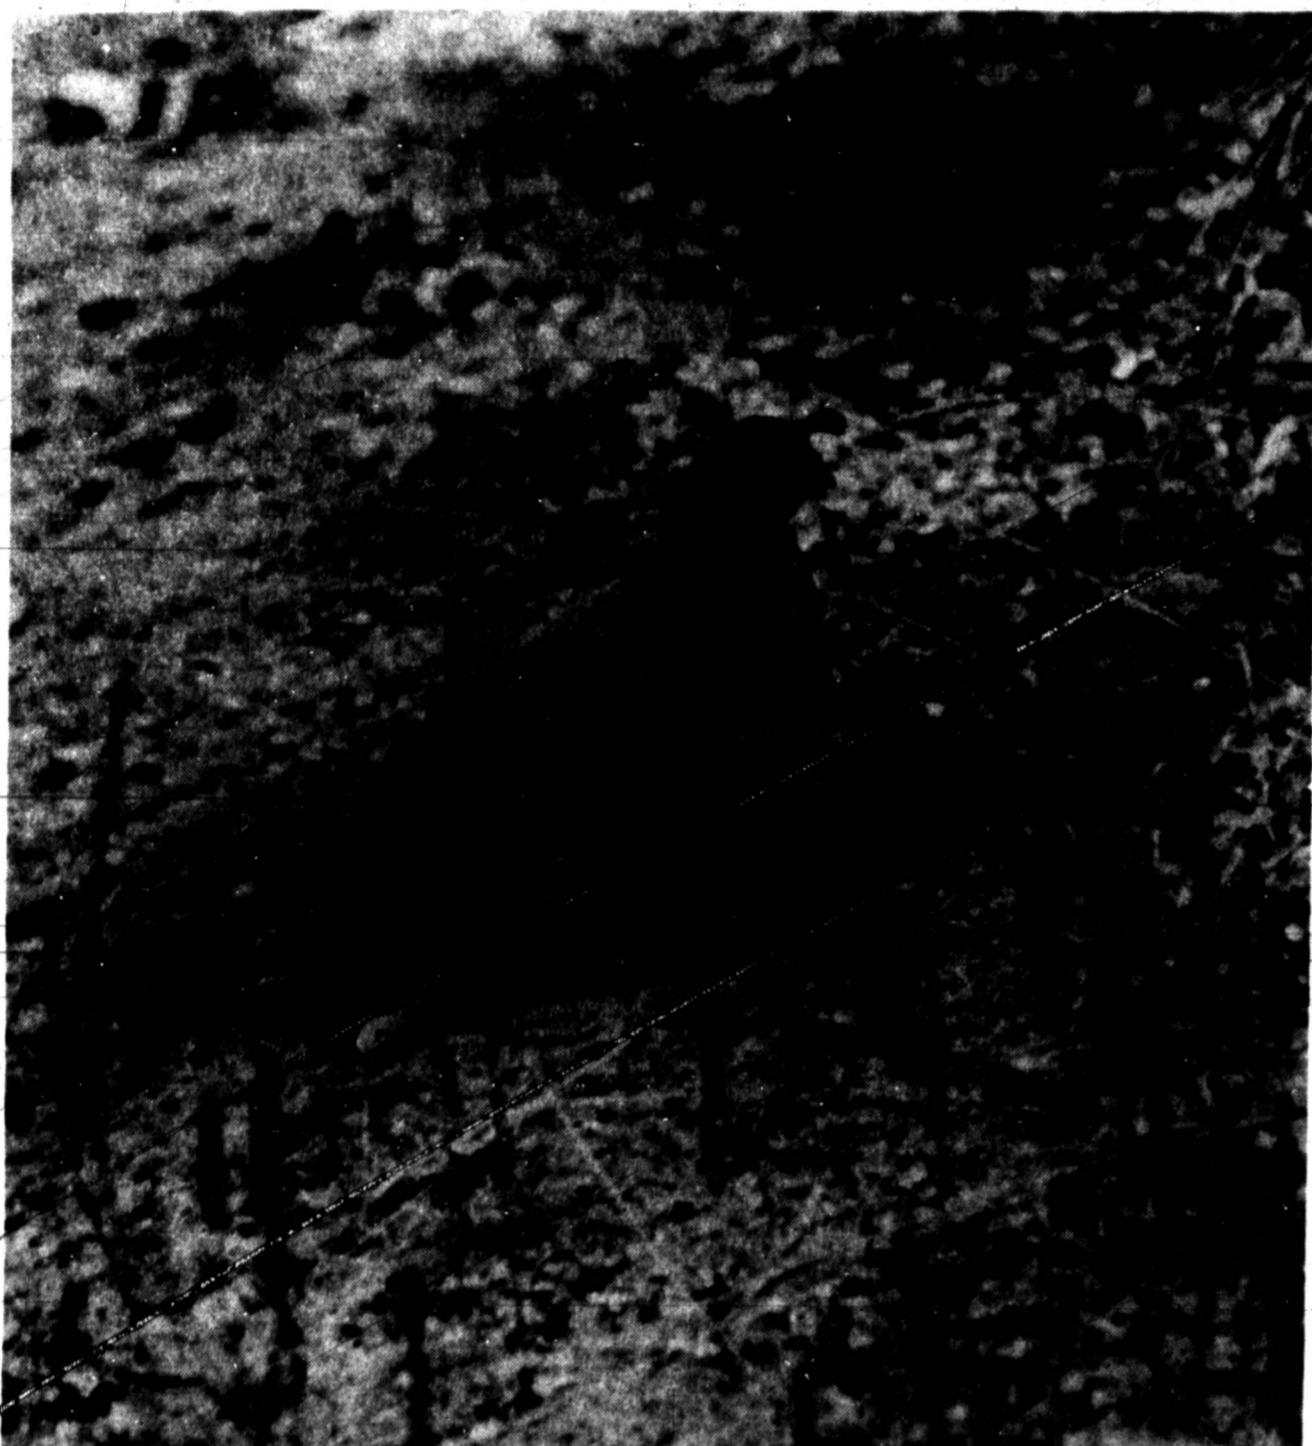

To members and guests who use these facilities it is evident that the best possible golfing environment has been created and is being preserved at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

Many rare wild water birds have made their home at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. The 10 sparkling lakes make a paradise for mallard ducks, Egyptian geese and many other varieties of water fowl.

The California Quail

Often in Carmel Valley your car may be halted as a bustling, self-important mother quail leads a line of tiny gray chicks across the road in front of you. Again at woodland edges or in quiet coastal clearings, the California quail presents a most appealing sight as it bursts unexpectedly from the grass at your feet, stiff-winged with excitement, its short black plume bristling on its little head.

These shy, plump, matronly-looking birds nest in grassy hollows on the ground, filling them with beige spotted eggs. They feed on small insects and seeds, and are especially fond of numerous small bulbs. Their sweet, three-syllabled call has been variously interpreted as "Wheee are you?" and "You Go way!", but we like to believe that the quail of the Monterey Peninsula are saying, "Have fun here," and "Come back soon!"

SERVING ALL MONTEREY COUNTY

A POOL FOR ALL OCCASIONS

POOLS MAKE EVERY DAY A HOLIDAY

If you are a home owner, you ought to consider the advantages of having your own swimming pool. It will offer wholesome fun for the whole family, convenience, and privacy — an entirely new dimension in family enjoyment. Every day will be a vacation day.

And gunite is the ideal material with which to build your pool, because gunite—and only gunite—permits any shape, and style, and lasts a lifetime. With gunite, you specify the shape of your pool; you're not limited to standard models. A swimming pool built with gunite offers beauty, compatibility, safety, permanence, and long-term economy.

And Atlas Pools of Gilroy is the place to get your new pool. . . . Atlas cannot be beat for dependability and quality. They have been serving the pool business in Santa Clara County for 15 years.
